Why Wearing SportsTagID is Critical

In an emergency, when you might not be able to speak SportsTagID medical ID bracelet speaks for you.

Symptoms of common ailments can easily be misdiagnosed. Prompt diagnosis is critical to effective treatment.

A brief description of vital medical facts engraved on your SportsTagID medical ID ensures appropriate and timely medical care.

According to a published study, half of all medical errors occur because of mistakes made upon admission or discharge From the hospital. Wearing a medical ID protects against potentially harmful medical errors.

Emergency Responders Are Trained To Look For Medical ID.

If you are wearing a Medical ID, it won't be missed.

Wearing a SportsTagID bracelet can eliminate trips to the hospital, reduce unnecessary hospital admissions and prevent Minor emergencies from becoming major ones. Medical ID'S save lives! One day, a medical ID may save you.

Who should wear SportsTagID?

If you have any ongoing medical conditions, drug or food allergies, or are taking multiple medicines, you should wear a SportsTagID alert bracelet. An engraved medical ID bracelet or necklace presenting a concise overview of your conditions, Allergies and medicines will alert a doctor or medic before they start treatment. Informing medical personnel about your unique medical conditions and needs will greatly aid pre-hospital care.

Organizations we believe in.... Things we stand for....You're support is our support

As We support bike-pure we have always believed that the majority of professional sports are drug free. That being said it is unfortunate that so much attention is given to the few that our caught breaking the rules and tarnishing the professional image of sports such as cycling. bike-pure has used cycling as a platform to create awareness for the world of sport. Today just about ever professional sport has been affected by a small percentage of athletes using performance enhancing drugs.

Show your support and order your bike-pure\Sportstagid. This ID will not only protect you but will allow you to share your voice in supporting all athletes in all sports that have worked hard to earn their spot on any professional team. Let this band be seen as your own piece of social media for supporting a great organization that protects the integrity of all competition

Professional sports need a voice, that voice is us, you and I. We live in a world where social media connects people and countries and can empower one person or the entire world. Its time.
